RECORD OF INVESTIGATION.

ASSISTANCE TO JAPANESE GENDARMERIE.

According to D.S.I. Unemoto, the Japanese Gendarmerie could not produce any evidence to substantiate the charge against the two arrested young men, in view of which, I would respectfully suggest that the men be set free immediately.

D.S.I. Unemoto requests that the men be released upon guarantee, in case they would be again wanted by the Japanese Gendarmerie for further questioning.

The men were questioned and emphatically denied having been members of the Mobile Unit or being engaged in any anti-Japanese activities.

Their statements have been taken down and are attached herewith.

REPORT OF POLICE INVESTIGATIONS.

The following is the statement of LOH WEN KWE (LOH WEN KWE) native of WANGDO taken by me C.D.S. 115. at C.B.H.Q.C.I. on the 4.10.38. and translated Hsu.

My name is Loh Wen Kwe, age 19, native of Wangdo, S/Unemployed, but formerly employed as an accountant at the Yue Dah Sauce Shop, Ying Ziang Kiang village, and residing at No. 44, Lane No. 166 Taku Road, (the home of my uncle, named Loh Shing Dee).

During the outbreak of the Shanghai hostilities on 13.8.37, I evacuated to live in my native place (Wangdo), where I remained until the month of December 1937, when I came back to Shanghai, but I later returned there again.

Between December 1937 and September this year I travelled to and from Shanghai and Wangdo for about five times, for the sole purpose of visiting my parents in the above said city. Besides I had no other particular work done in Wangdo.

Owing to my recent illness I removed to live in Room 210 Yangtze Hotel, Hankow Road, which was engaged by one of my friends, named Wong Kung Chah. During my stay in the above mentioned room I ^{received} from a friend, one named Zee Pou Dah Dah a marriage invitation card, bearing the time date and place of his marriage.

I, therefore, at about 8 p.m. on 4.10.38, accompanied by my friend, Wong Kung Chah, proceeded to the China Hotel, Kweichow Road. We were partaking of the wedding feast when the Police raided and placed me under arrest. The reason for my arrest is unknown to me.

I have never served in any military, police or volunteer force. This is my true statement.

SIGNED : LOH WEN KWE .

REPORT OF POLICE INVESTIGATIONS.

The following is the statement of SUNG NYIEN (孙衍年), 23, 215 China Hotel native of Pear Loong Village, taken by me. D.S.I. Soong Ping Tsung, at C.I. on the 5. 10. 38 and interpreted by Yao.

My name is SUNG NYIEN, aged 23 years, and native of Pearn Loong Village, near Tsing-mu. I am now staying in Room No. 215, China Hotel. I am employed as an accountant in the Maintenance Society of that Village, receiving a salary of $20.00 per month. The chairman of this society is HUANG FUH ZU, who is also a native of that village.

On 2.10.38 I came to Shanghai for the purpose of (1) taking my sister back to country, where it has now become peaceful to settle down, and (2) to tender my congratulations to my friend Mr. Zee Paung Dah on the occasion of his wedding on the 4.10.38.

On the 4.10.38 the wedding ceremony was held at the China Hotel, and I was invited to attend the party amongst his other friends and relatives. Besides, Mr. Zee requested me to assist him in keeping other guests entertained on that day in the wedding hall.

At about 6 p.m. I and other guests sat together at the wedding dinner. We were just dining when the Police Party arrived and placed all of us under arrest.

At the party, I know the bride-groom, Mr. Zee only. He is a member of the Yang Kyi Steam-ship Co. whose vessels used to pass the area, which is under the control of our Maintenance Society. This is how I knew him. I know nobody else at the party.

I have never been in military, police or volunteer service.

This is the truth.
